DIED SUDDENLY
OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it:

"I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonin (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonin unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is--do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Fight with a Burglar.

George L. Marshall, Brooklyn representative of a Baltimore soda water firm, after withstanding chloroform and a blow from a sandbag, relieved a burglar of all the tools of his profession and put him to flight yesterday. When the burglar took his departure the victorious Marshall found in his possession, besides a revolver, a sandbag, a jimmy, a screwdriver, a brace and bit, an electric flash lamp, a bottle of chloroform, an ounce of red pepper, a handkerchief and a mask. There was also an umbrella.

The odor of chloroform, instead of deadening Marshall's senses, aroused him to find the burglar bending over him in his home, in Brooklyn. It was early in the morning, and the man as soon as Marshall moved whispered, "I'll put a bullet in you if you stir."

"You will, eh?" responded Marshall, as he jumped up and seized the fellow by the throat.

The next instant he fell back on the bed, dazed from a blow over the head with a sandbag.

Mrs. Marshall, who awoke with a scream, was hit also with the sandbag and remained unconscious.

The burglar then began to search for booty, but he had reckoned without Marshall who recovered, and, springing on the man, brought him to the floor. For fully 10 minutes the pair rolled over and over in the struggle, but Marshall never lost his grip, and eventually wrested the revolver, the butt of which was being used on his head, from the burglar. From the bedroom they rolled to the kitchen, and by this time Marshall had his man so weakened that he was able to force him through the open doorway which had afforded him entrance.

It was Marshall's intention to throw the man down the stairs, but he managed to gain his feet and wrench himself free, saving Marshall the trouble. With all the fight out of him, the burglar half ran and half tumbled down the stairs and made his escape.

Marshall yelled from a window and fired shots, which aroused all his neighbors and brought a score of police to the scene, but no trace of the burglar was found.

Mrs. Marshall, who was more frightened than hurt, had by this time regained consciousness

Killed Wife at Her Request.

In a calm and natural voice, Julian Pavlinic, a native of Austria, who has been in America nine years yesterday stood in front of the desk in police headquarters at Newport News and informed the officials on duty that he had killed his wife at her request and that her body could be found at his home in Elizabeth City county. In his hand Pavlinic carried a small pistol, which he deposited upon the sergeant's desk.

Sergeant Mitchell, who was on duty, thought the man crazy, but he showed no signs of it. Chief Reynold came into the station and the man told him the story of the crime. "After killing her with this pistol," he declared. "I shrouded her and cleaned up the house and then came here to give myself up. You remember my wife was sent to the Williamsburg Asylum from Newport News about two years ago. She was discharged last February and I brought her back to my home. She made me promise that if ever she went crazy again and would have to be sent back to the asylum I should kill her. Well, about 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning she woke me by choking me. She was insane again. She quieted and told me to remember my promise. In a few minutes she became violent again Then she dropped off to sleep. I then went to the bureau, and, taking this pistol, shot her seven times. I then sat down and saw her die. She lived 10 minutes after I shot her."

Asked if he realized the consequences of his crime, Pavlinic said that he did and that he wanted to die. He said that he did not want to take his own life. The man has been turned over to the Elizabeth City county authorities for trial. Mrs. Pavlinic was a native of Germany. The couple had lived at Newport News for eight years.

Ousted for Her Stockings.

Had pretty Mrs. E. J. Long worn black stockings or a longer skirt the sign announcing her profession as a clairvoyant would still be swinging from a handsome suit in the Lytle Block, in Sioux City, where her office had been.

But she wore white stockings and a short skirt, so she had been asked by the managers of the block to move. The block is occupied largely by physicians and lawyers. There is no elevator and the stairs are steep. Three hundred men climb these stairs every day, and Mrs. Long went up these stairs at least twenty times a day, skirt in hand.

Finally the men informed the manager they could stand the sight of those milk white stockings no longer. The manager told Mrs. Long to go. She demanded to know the trouble. "Well, if you wish to know," the manager answered, "it's because the men object to your white stockings, and every one will move if you don't."

Mrs. Long burst into tears, locked herself in her room, and next day moved.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pasty sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs and less to the skin on their faces, they would have better complexion. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King St.

AMERICAN WOMEN FIND RELIEF

The Case of Miss Irene Crosby Is One of Thousands of Cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that it is not the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely.

Thousands of American women, however, have found relief from all monthly suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs these periods of their terrors.

Miss Irene Crosby, of 313 Charlton Street, East Savannah, Ga., writes:

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a true friend to woman. It has been of great benefit to me, curing me of irregular and painful periods when everything else had failed, and I gladly recommend it to other suffering women."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulence), displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising women free of charge. Thousands have been cured by so doing.

Jealous of Mother.

Society circles in Chicago were surprised Saturday by the announcement that Mrs. Charles Purcell, wife of the millionaire maltster, had separated from her husband after twenty-six years, and had accepted a cash payment of $45,000 in lieu of divorce proceedings. Mrs. Purcell, who is now living at a hotel, says: "I agreed not to sue for divorce, and, in any contingency, not to mention the name of my mother in such a suit."

Her mother is Mrs. William C. Gray, widow of the editor of the Interior, official organ of the Presbyterian Society. She is 65 years old, tall, dignified and white-haired. Mrs. Purcell intimates that her husband lavished too much affection upon her mother. The Grays are relatives of the late Senator Brice, of Ohio, and also of Whitelaw Reid, United States Ambassador to England.

Mrs. Gray said yesterday: "The kindest thing that I can say about my daughter is that she is the victim of hallucinations. There is positively no truth in the charges she makes against me."

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 8, 1906.

IN AN article on the "Condemned Meat Industry," for 'Everybody's Upton Sinclair, author of "The Jungle," puts forth a quantity of evidence going to show that J. Ogden Armour 'wilfully and deliberately states what he absolutely and positively knows to be falsehoods" in denying that condemned animals enter directly or indirectly into any food product of his firm. During the two years that Mr. Sinclair studied the meat industry, he spent much of his time as a workman in the Chicago stockyards. He quotes from the report made by Thomas H. McKee, the New York lawyer employed by Doubleday, Page & Company, to investigate the statements made in "The Jungle." McKee was introduced by an attorney for Armour and was conducted through the beef plant by its superintendent. He tells of seeing six hogs, two afflicted with cholera and three with tuberculosis and one with ulcer, deposited in a lard tank. Also the sworn statement of Thomas F. Dolan, a former superintendent for Armour, published at the time of the embalmed beef inquiry who told of many ways of getting round the inspectors. In one case dummy tanks for condemned cattle were used, with exhaust steam to give the appearance of real boilers, while in reality the diseased carcasses merely fell through a bottomless tank on to trucks, to be hauled back to the cutting room. Dolan had proved this by marking animals with his knife. He now says that Armour tried to bribe him to contradict this affidavit. Sinclair says that the laws regulating the inspection of meat were written by the packers "for the express purpose of making this condemned meat industry impossible of prevention," and that the United States inspectors are employed to certify to the nations "that all diseased and tainted meat which happens to come into existence in the United States of America is carefully sifted out and consumed by the American people." This is a rank condition of affairs and would be tolerated in no other country on the globe. But the trusts go on the principle that, with the people, where ignorance is bliss it is folly for them to be wise.

A NEW PAPER is to be established in New York by Mr. Albert Pulitzer, a brother of Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the New York World. The new paper, it is said, will be of a different class from many of the present day. Among other things Mr. Pulitzer says:

The public no longer cares to read half a column of headlines before reaching an inaccurate four line dispatch. There is an awful monotony in news papers at the present time, from which I shall try to escape.

It has been apparent for some time that a large majority of readers of news papers have grown tired of flaming headlines extending in some cases across the first page of a paper. When the body of a dispatch is read it is often seen to be nothing beyond some common-place event. The bulk of some journals is composed of handbills or poster headlines, which impart to such papers a cheap appearance. Mr. Pulitzer may give original features in his new paper, but in abolishing misleading and sensational headlines he will be merely going back to sane principles which were practiced by conservative journalists many years ago, and which are still held by a few of them now. Big headlines have long since ceased to appeal to the people. They want to read the news—and not a pyramid of headlines to lead them to it.

CONDITIONS at San Francisco continue steadily to improve as time elapses The prompt and generous response of the country to the city's most urgent needs has given the distressed inhabitants a breathing spell and heartened them in their efforts to repair the work of disaster. The people themselves, doubtless, inherit much of the hopeful and enterprising spirit of the pioneer, and it occasions no surprise to learn that they are already planning to rebuild San Francisco upon lines of greater extent and beauty than before. Much discussion has arisen over a proposition, broached recently, to secure the indorsement or guarantee of the federal government for a bond issue of $200,000,000, to be used in reconstructing the city. A resolution looking to this end was introduced in Congress, but it naturally failed to elicit much support, being regarded as in the nature of a dangerous precedent. A plan much more promising is that of securing a large loan from private capitalists upon the credit of the city, or the joint credit of the State and city. This suggests Bradstreets would be more in consonance with ordinary American methods and would reflect more accurately the general sentiment of the country.

THE last shadow of doubt as to peace in the anthracite coal region was removed yesterday, when in New York representatives of the miners and of the operators signed a joint agreement providing that the award of the anthracite coal strike commission shall prevail for a second period of three years. It was also agreed that all mine employes shall be restored to their old positions except such as have been guilty of violence to person or property. Such men the operators naturally do not want to have in their employ. This agreement will today be ratified by the miners' convention at Scranton, and at the same time a 40-cent reduction in the price of coal will be announced. The reduction brings the retail price of domestic coal down to the normal May figure, for which all consumers will be grateful.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Some startling developments are expected in the next few weeks in the bituminous coal investigation. Since the first meeting in Philadelphia when the special counsel for the Interstate Commerce Commission secured the minutes of the association of railroads for the fixing of coal rates at tidewater, the railroads have seemingly been making a clean confession to the commission. There has been one exception to the general rule. The Baltimore and Ohio railroad and the Baltimore syndicate that purchased its holdings in the Consolidation Coal Company of West Virginia has failed to send in the contract under which the railroad sold to the syndicate its coal holdings in the coal company, amounting to something like $5,000,000. Clarence W. Watson, president of the syndicate, refused to furnish what he said was a private paper. Hugh L. Bond, jr. second vice president of the Baltimore and Ohio, told the commission that it was not fair to the syndicate for him to make public the terms of the contract. The commission will further urge the B. and O. to furnish a copy of the document It is regarded as of much significance that the railroad should dispose of its $5,000,000 coal lands in the midst of the investigation. After that sale the commission took another tack. Much time during the coming weeks will be spent in endeavoring to find out for whom Mr. Watson held as trustee 19,995 shares in the Fairmont Coal Company.

Fire about 2:15 o'clock this morning in the stables owned by Allen C. Moran, at 1912 8th street n. w., burned to death two racehorses. Another, a freight horse, was badly burned. Four sheds were also burned. Loss, about $2,000.

On account of the indisposition of Senator Morgan, the examination of William Nelson Cromwell, counsel of the Panama Railroad and one of its directors, was today postponed by the Senate canal committee until tomorrow. Mr. Morgan was taken with an acute attack of rheumatism while awaiting the assembling of the committee. When a quorum did get together a short executive session was held at which the committee decidedly adversely on Mr. Morgan's bill relative to the type of canal, and combining some of the features of both the sea level and lock type advocates on the board of consulting engineers.

A complete agreement has been reached among republican Senators upon the principal amendments to be put on the railroad bill, which Senator Allison will offer. They include provisions specifically conferring jurisdiction on the Circuit Courts to hear complaints against the orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission; prohibiting injunctions to suspend orders of the commission without due notice and without the concurrence of two judges; allowing the rates fixed by the commission to go into effect at the discretion of the commission instead of directing that they shall remain in effect two years; striking out the words "fairly remunerative," in the description of the rate that may be fixed by the commission, and allowing the words "in its judgment" to remain in the bill where the commission is empowered to fix rates.

Col. John S. Mosby was a caller at the White House today.

Collapse of a Building.

Havana, May 8.—Six persons were killed and a dozen or more wounded, some of them seriously, by the collapse today of a portion of the Jose Gener cigarette factory. The building in which the factory was located is new and had not been fully completed. Scores of men and women employed in the factory, as well as the workmen engaged on the building, were inside the structure when the crash came. The work of rescuing those who were carried down in the ruins was taken up at once and the dead and injured were taken out one at a time. All the injured persons were sent to hospitals for treatment. The accident has caused a great deal of excitement among the Cubans.

Creffield, leader of the so-called religious organization known as the "Holy Rollers," was shot in the head and instantly killed in Seattle, Wash., yesterday by George Mitchell, a laborer, aged twenty-five years. In the House yesterday Mr. Williams developed a milk filibuster, having in mind the failure of the conferees on the statehood bill to report, and for the additional purpose of advising the House that it could not enact legislation without the presence of a quorum. Forty-five bills were passed, however, covering a wide range of subjects.

Although apparently coming out of the battle without a scratch, he soon became unconscious and died as the result of a rupture of a blood vessel of the brain.

The District of Columbia Commissioners will take no action on the Dillingham bill prohibiting betting on horse races in the District and which also affects the Benning track, until the District Attorney has made a test case of the present law before the Court of Appeals. They claim that the present law, if sustained by the higher court, is sufficient to cover all kinds of betting in the District.

The papal Secretary of State, Cardinal Merry del Val, has been instructed to prepare an important circular note which the Pope is about to send to the members of the Sacred College at Rome. In this communication the Pontiff will take the occasion of the dinner given by the American Ambassador, Mr. White, who on April 25 gave a banquet in honor of Archbishop Ireland, at which four cardinals were present, to recall the fact that nothing has changed in the relations between the Vatican and the Quirinal, and that, therefore, the dignitaries of the church must abstain from intercourse with personages attached to or accredited to the Italian court.

The Railroad Rate Bill.

The net result of the consideration of amendments to the railroad rate bill in the Senate yesterday was the adoption of the Culberson substitute prohibiting the issuance of free passes and the defeat of the Kittridge amendment deeming private car lines to be common carriers. More than four hours were devoted to the rate bill under the agreement for its consideration by sections under the 15 minute rule.

The provision which was made the basis of the discussion was that suggested by Mr. Foraker prohibiting the granting of rebates, passes, drawbacks or special rates to passengers on railways, and also prohibiting discriminations in a way of accomodations where equal rates are paid. The discussion took a broad range, covering first the pass question and then the race question in southern States. The race issue was raised in connection with the clause relative to discriminations, which was interpreted as referring to separate cars for the races, and it called out very warm protests from Mr. Bacon, Mr. Money, Mr. Culberson and other southern Senators.

The following is the amendment which was adopted:

"No company engaged in interstate business shall, directly or indirectly, give a free ticket, free pass or free transportation to any person except the officers, agents, employes and attorneys exclusively in the service of the carrier issuing the same, or to ministers of religion, inmates of hospitals or charitable institutions. Any carrier violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall for each offense pay to the United States a penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $2,000."

Miners to Return to Work.

After carrying on negotiations for nearly three months the subcommittees representing the anthracite mineworkers and operators of Eastern Pennsylvania in New York yesterday agreed to continue the award of the strike commission for another three years, and the men will return to work as soon as practicable, probably Monday.

All miners who have not committed violence against persons or property will be re-employed, and no one will be discriminated against because of any activity he may have taken in the strike movement. The agreement is subject to the ratification of the tri-district convention of mineworkers at Scranton today but there is not the slightest doubt that the delegates will approve the action of their representatives.

This outcome of a dispute which threatened to develop into a long and bitter struggle and paralyze a great industry was looked upon with considerable satisfaction by the coal road presidents.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. Compromise on the Rate Bill.

The situation of the railroad rate bill took another decided change yesterday, and at the same time there was an additional step toward final agreement as to what the judicial review amendment shall be. The Allison compromise proposition met with such determined opposition from those senators who have fought against a "broad" court review that, despite President Roosevelt's acceptance of it and his declaration that other provisions he had advocated were not vital, an agreement was reached by which several restrictions will be placed on the review proposition. These were agreed upon in consequence of many informal conferences on the floor of the Senate during debate The result is that in return for the amendment conferring jurisdiction on circuit courts to review orders of the commission, friends of the bill demanded, and, by agreement of Senate leaders will secure counter concessions, as follows:

That no order of the commission shall be suspended or set aside by an interlocutory order or decree without a hearing had on the application therefor, unless at least five days' notice shall be given to the commission of the time and place fixed for said hearing

That such order shall not be made unless two judges of the court to which application is made shall concur in such interlocutory order or decree.

That an appeal from such interlocutory order or decree may be taken within 30 days from the entry of, but shall lie only to the Supreme Court of the United States.

That the rate-making section of the bill shall not be amended.

The agreement reached by republican leaders is a concession to the democrats. The amendment providing for the giving of notice of hearings for injunctions was first offered by Senator Overman; Senator Bacon originated the proposition for the hearing of such applications by two judges, and several democrats introduced amendments providing for appeals direct to the Supreme Court.

A Distressing Accident.

Mrs. Frank Fry, of near Mount Jackson, Shenandoah county, met death in a horrible manner Sunday morning near her home. She was in a buggy with her four-year-old son, when the axle broke and she was thrown out. Mrs. Fry was impaled on the axle. The accident occurred about the middle of the forenoon, while Mrs. Fry was on her way to the home of her father-in-law. The horse became frightened at the breaking of the axle and ran away. The child was thrown out and escaped unhurt, while the mother was dragged a distance of fifty feet. The broken end of the axle penetrated her body and she was terribly mutilated. A little daughter of the injured woman, who had been left at home, only a short distance from the scene of the accident, was attracted by her mother's cries for help and discovered her frightful condition. The little girl summoned assistance, and the injured woman was carried to her home, although she was able to walk part of the way with assistance. Several physicians were summoned, but were unable to save her life. Despite her sufferings, she remained conscious throughout the day, and was rational till the time of her death, which occurred at 8 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Fry was about forty years of age, and leaves a husband and five children. She was a native of Pennsylvania.

Reception to Speaker Cannon.

Speaker Cannon was the guest at a reception given him last night at the Arlington Hotel, in Washington, by his colleagues in the House of Representatives in honor of his seventieth birthday. It was a notable occasion, made so by the presence of President Roosevelt and almost every official of note in Washington, and others from outside cities, who called to extend their congratulations. A feature of the decorations was the miniature Capitol which occupied half the north cafe, where Mr. Cannon, with a receiving party, was stationed. The scene represented the Capitol at night, with the two Houses in session, the only lights being those from the Capitol and from the Capitol grounds. An elaborate buffet luncheon was served in the dining room of the hotel.

Today's Telegraphic News

Said to Have Committed Suicide.

New York, May 8.—According to a statement made today by police inspector Grant, Charles T. Spier, right hand man of Henry H. Rogers and high in the councils of the Standard Oil Company, who was found dead early yesterday morning in his home in Staten Island, was not shot to death by a burglar, but from the investigation made the inspector is convinced that the man committed suicide. Developments today show that Spier had an outstanding judgment in bankruptcy against him and others for $50,877 in favor of the Mercantile Exchange National Bank. This judgment was entered after the Yetman Transmitting Company, a concern of which he was president, and in which he was largely interested, went into bankruptcy. In investigating the dead young financier's affairs, it has also been developed that he recently took out policies, one for $50,000, ordinary life, payable only in case of death, and the other for $25,000 on the endowment plan. When the policies were first made out Mr. Spier had the name of his wife inserted as beneficiary. Before final acceptance, however, he made a change. The name of Mrs. Spier was taken out and that of "Alfred Lauterbach, trustee," was inserted. The policies are incontestable, no matter what the cause of death. It has also been proved that the bullet that killed Mr. Spier was fired from his own revolver. This revolver was found beside the body when Mrs. Spier threw herself upon him, and lay unconscious until the servants came.

England and Turkey.

London, May 8.—Indications are beginning to point that the Sultan will decline to agree to the British demands regarding the boundary dispute between Turkey and Egypt within the time limit of the ultimatum. The Sultan will attempt to prolong the negotiations, hoping to secure more in the end than if he gave way now. The British government, however, has resolved to move quickly when the time limit expires, one week from today, if this becomes necessary. Six torpedo boats have been ordered from Malta to patrol the Red Sea, the same as in war time. What uneasiness exists as to the outcome is due to the fact that a fight is proceeding between the anti-British and pro-British officials at the Yildiz Kiosk, at Constantinople, for the dominating influence over the Sultan. The anti-Britishers, thus far, have the upper hand.

Explosion of Powder Mill.

Xenia, O., May 8.—What is known as the "Jumbo" glazing mill of the Miami Powder Company plant at Goes, blew up at 12:20 o'clock this morning. The mill was a large frame structure and contained many tons of powder. There was not enough of the building left to cause a fire. An immense hole was made in the earth, and the country was shaken up for miles around. Xenia people were aroused thinking an earthquake had come. The mill was in operation but no one was in it and no one was injured. Nothing is known as to what caused the explosion. The loss will amount to many thousands of dollars.

Peace in the Anthracite Region.

Scranton, Pa., May 8.—Peace is assured in the anthracite region for the next three years. The agreement to continue the award of the strike commission for a period of three years, entered into in New York yesterday by the mine operators and the mine workers has been ratified at the special session of the mine workers held at Music Hall at 10 o'clock this morning. The three years' agreement was ratified at this morning's meeting. Following this action another vote was taken directing that work be resumed Monday and the repair men go back Thursday. The convention adjourned shortly afterwards

The exiled Pasha became angry over the questions put to him and seized the procurator by the throat, choking and biting him until he was dead.

Kaiser's Purposed Visit to Vienna.

Vienna, May 8.—The announcement that the Kaiser will visit Vienna on June 9 has caused a sensation and is connected with the Kaiser' telegram of thanks to former Premier of Austria, Count Goluchowski, after the conference at Algeciras, Spain, the form of which caused embarrassment to the Austrian government. The Kaiser is now desirous of explaining away the awkward wording of the telegram and at the same time emphasies to the world the Austro-German intimacy.

Water Hauls.

Camden, N. J., May 8.—Robbers this morning blew a safe in the office of the City Line Brick Works at the White Horse pike and Ferry avenue but secured nothing. The building was damaged by the explosion. The robbers broke with a sledge hammer the combination on a large safe which several charges of nitroglycerine failed to open. This is the robbers' second visit to the place in six weeks.

Threw Stone at Automobile.

Madrid, May 8.—While the royal family was returning to the palace last night in an automobile, driven by King Alfonso, some one threw a stone at the flying vehicle. The police are looking for the person who threw the stone, but they have no clews to work upon.

Big Social Scandal.

Libson, May 8.—A big social scandal has developed here through the elopement of the seventeen year-old daughter of Count Maranhao with Jose Silva, a priest at the Lisbon Cathedral. The eloping couple fled to Spain, and the Spanish government has been asked to arrest the fugitives. Count Maranhao's family is one of the most aristocratic and richest in Portugal.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 8.—There has been a continuation of the upward movement that was in progress all day yesterday, with the heaviest trading again in Reading. In the general list advances ranging from half to 2 points were made in within the first hour and it was said that pools were active on the bull side before the San Francisco disaster had assumed aggressive operations.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 8.

SENATE

When the railroad rate regulation bill was taken up in the Senate today, the Elkins amendment was considered. It makes it unlawful for any common carrier engaged in producing, manufacturing, buying, furnishing or selling coal, coke, or any other commodity, to engage in interstate commerce.

Mr. Dryden declared that unless some day was fixed for the provision taking effect, there would ensue great hardship for the railways and deprivation for the coal consuming people.

Mr. Teller though it unfortunate that the amendment was being pressed, as railways could under State charter own and transport coal within the State.

Mr. Dick declared that the time should be extended for the effect of the provision or else the subject should be dealt with separately. He urged the postponement of the question.

Mr. Knox denied the right of Congress to constitutionally enact such a provision, claiming that it could only prohibit trade under such conditions where the carrier sought to stifle competition or aimed to get an unfair advantage. He declared that Congress could not go into a State and deliberately cancel a State charter.

During the discussion of the railway rate bill in the Senate this afternoon, Mr. Cullom offered the well-known Allison judicial amendment which has been accepted by the conflicting republican interests. He expressed regret that its distinguished author was prevented by illness from offering it in person.

Mr. Rayner offered an amendment which he will offer to it, providing against jurisdiction for injunction except upon the ground that the new rate is a violation of the carriers' right under the fifth constitutional amendment or that the commission exceeded its jurisdiction. These were the grounds originally set forth as desired by the President.

HOUSE.

Mr. Campbell, of Kansas, introduced a resolution directing the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to inquire into the cause "of the many fatal railway accidents that have occurred in this country, within the past four years," and to show the number of accidents and fatalities and loss of property due to each given cause, the total number of lives lost, and the total value of property destroyed, and to report to the President with suggestions that "will result in greater safety to the traveling public."

The House disagreed to the Senate amendments to the military appropriation bill, and sent the measure to conference.

Mr. Prince opposed one of the amendments which permits brigadier generals who have a civil war record to retire as major generals. He said that there are six or seven of the officers, that it was simply class legislation, and a "trick" to "pad the government payrolls."

The naval appropriation bill was then taken up and read for amendments.

Howard Cary a Suicide.

The death of Howard Cary, of New York, who was discovered May 4 shot dead in his bed at a Kensington boarding house in London is being investigated by the Coroner. Apparently it is a case of suicide, Cary arrived here May 2 and was staying at the boarding house with his cousin, Lord Fairfax. The latter testified at the inquest that he and Cary dined and went to the theatre together May 3. The deceased appeared to be quite cheerful. Other witnesses testified to finding Cary dead with a revolver grasped in his right hand and a bullet in his right temple. He was dressed in evening clothes and there was no sign of a struggle in the room. The doctor who made the post-mortem examination said it was certainly a case of suicide.

Democratic Committee.

A meeting of the city democratic committee was held last night at the Hotel Fleischmann. Mr. Charles Bendheim, chairman of the committee, presided, and Messrs. O. F. Carter, R. T. Cook, Oscar Phillips and G. L. Simpson were present.

Mr. Carter asked for a report from a special committee appointed some time ago to investigate charges of irregularity against Committeeman G. E. Price. Chairman Bendheim stated that the complainant had died since the charges were filed, and suggested that the matter be dropped, but Mr. Carter insisted that Mr Price should either be exonerated or dropped from the committee.

A motion to drop the charges and discharge the special committee was carried unanimously. Mr. Cook subsequently offered the resignation of Mr. Price, which was accepted.

The principal object of the meeting was for the purpose of making preparations for a primary to nominate candidates for the City Council and it was determined to hold primaries only in the wards in which the present members have opposition, and to assess the costs against the candidates in such wards.

It was also decided, in view of the fact that the ward primaries must be held in the very near future in order to comply with the law, that notice of candidacy must be filed with the committee by 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Mr. Simpson moved that all citizens who are qualified to vote in the June election be allowed to participate in the primary. This was agreed to.

One member of the Board of Aldermen and two members of Common Council from each ward will be chosen at the June election.

It is understood that all of the present members will be candidates for renomination, and that J. Fred Birrell will be a candidate for Common Council from the Third ward.

Messrs. J. M. Hill, W. W. Ballenger, Geo. L. Simpson and W. H. Sweeney, of the Board of Aldermen were selected for the long (four-year) term. Messrs. N. P. T. Burke, F. F. Marbury, J. R. N. Curtin and J. T. Sweeney will fill the short term which expires September 1, 1906.

In the Common Council Messrs. E. S. Leadbeater, H. R. Burke, Henry Strauss, J. Y. Williams, G. L. Boothe, J. T. Harrison, F. C. Spinks and C. B. Marshall hold over until September 1, 1908. The terms of Messrs. T. L. Risheill, Hubert Snowden, Henry Baader, Louis Brill, W. H. Hellmuth, F. J. Pollard, L. E. Uhler and Albert Bryan will expire on the 1st of next September.

Reception to Father Kavanagh.

St. Mary's Hall was the scene of a brilliant reception last night given in honor of Rev. Father P. Kavanagh, of Boston, by a number of the ladies of the congregation of St. Mary's Church. Rev. Father Cutler, who is able to be out again, was present. A large number of guests were present and the hall was most tastefully decorated. Upon the request of Mrs. Jacob Brill, Mme. J. Esputa-Daly acted as director of the attractive programme which was rendered. Those who contributed to the success of the affair were Mr. Norman Daly, of Washington, the favorite pianist, and Miss Louise Carson, a violinist of rare ability, who received an ovation. Miss Marie McKevitt sang with beautiful effect "Sing me to Sleep." Mrs. Mary Fenton and Mr. Wm. Hill sang solos and responded to encores. Mrs. W. H. Miller sang an "Ave Marie," Miss M. Devitt accompanist. The piano solo, "Stabat-Mater" (Rossini), was rendered by Miss M. Devitt. A couple of recitations of great merit were given by Mr. P. G. Schillinger, of Baltimore.

At the close of the programme Dr. E. A. Gorman in an appropriate manner presented to Father Kavanagh on behalf of the ladies present a beautifully designed goldheaded cane.

Father Kavanagh in accepting the token responded briefly, saying how much he appreciated the beautiful testimonial and assured the ladies that it would be always highly prized. He told them how his visit to Alexandria, which was intended to be for a short time, had lengthened into five months, but on account of the delightful manner in which he had been treated they appeared to him as only weeks, and that the remembrance of his visit to this city would ever remain.

At the close of the reception refreshments were served and all departed after a delightful evening's entertainment.

The committee having the affair in charge was as follows: Miss Mary Gorman, Mrs. F. McCarthy, Mrs. Eberhardt, Mrs. Joseph Monroe, Mrs. J. Brill, Mrs. E. M. Birrell, Mrs. Joseph Drew, Mrs. John Nugent, Mrs. M. R. O'Sullivan, Mrs. M. Creegan, Mrs. B. Crook and Mrs. E. Duffey.

An orchestra, composed of Miss Annie Gorman, Mrs. P. F. Gorman, jr., and Mr. H. Hayden rendered selections.

On this occasion the fire was under the roof of the old frame house near the southwest corner facing the Southern Railway round house on the south. The building was considerably damaged before the flames were extinguished. It is supposed that the fire was of incendiary origin. About sixteen years ago the Southern Railway Company fitted up the building as a reading room for their employees. It has, however, for several years been unoccupied.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? Pius X and the Bible.

A letter from Rome says that it has ately been observed that Pius X is daily becoming even more strict than his immediate predecessor in matters regarding which, during the late pontificate, some concessions to modern ideas were made. Bible interpretation is one of these, and the encouragement given by the late Pope to biblical studies and his tolerance of even advanced ideas in the matter of interpretation gave courage to Biblical students all over the world and a new school of advanced ideas was established, numbering among its followers even members of the most conservative religious orders of the church such as the Jesuits. Pius X, however, has paid particular attention to this matter and has recently issued rules and regulations to be followed by Bible students in the interpretation of matters related in the Bible that may be said to rival the decrees of the holy office some centuries ago. Just now a syllabus of rules of biblical intrepretation is being prepared at the Vatican and is soon to be published in order that all biblical students may not go beyond certain boundaries. Then it was only a few weeks ago that several biblical works and the book of the Italian Senator Fogazzaro were placed in the "Index," to the sorrow and disappointment of many who had dreamed of a new era of liberal views.

Woman Attempts Suicide.

Three dress skirts which she wore buoyed up Miss Pauline Vollmagel after she had leaped from the ferryboat Pierrepont at New York yesterday afternoon until she was lassoed with a rope thrown from the craft by a former cowboy and her life saved. Miss Vollmagel is 28 years old and good looking. Passengers aboard the ferryboat Pierrepont, which runs to Hamilton street, Brooklyn, saw her pacing back and forth on the rear deck when the boat was off Governor's island. Before anyone could deter her she climbed the railing and jumped into the water. By the time the boat was stopped the current had carried her many rods away, but Deckhand Jordan, who used to punch cows out West, got a rope and skillfully threw a noose around her. The woman was vainly trying to get her head under water, but her skirts held her up. Jordan hauled her aboard. At the Long Island College Hospital Miss Vollmagel told the doctors that her sweetheart had jilted her. She will recover.

Father and Son Murdered.

John Whiteman, aged seventy years, and his son George, aged forty, were murdered yesterday in a little roadside barroom kept by them at Browntown, near New Brunswick, N. J. The two men were last seen alive at 3 o'clock in the afternoon by Miss Whiteman, the daughter of the older man, who lived near by, and who, on going to the place three hours later, found the door closed and all the blinds drawn. Pushing open the door she found the bodies of her father and brother lying on the floor. The throats of both were cut. The condition of the room indicated that the men had made a desperate resistance before being overcome, apparently by several assailants. On the floor lay three blood-stained razors. All the furniture in the room was overturned. The location is a lonely one, and it is believed that the Whitemans were attacked and killed by one of the numerous bands of tramps that infest the neighborhood.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tacket's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial.
